The ALEA Flight Safety Recognition Program honors flight crews who have significant accident and violation free law enforcement mission flight hours.

Bronze Level	1,500 Hours
Silver Level	2,500 Hours
Gold Level	3,500 Hours
Platinum Level	5,000 Hours

ALEA members, qualified in the aircraft crew position and assigned as aircrew members by their unit, to a police agency directed mission (tactical or otherwise) are allowed to use all of the time flown towards receiving an ALEA Flight Safety Recognition Award.

Qualified professional members will receive an 8½" x 11" certificate suitable for framing. To qualify, you must be a professional member of ALEA in good standing.

To apply, complete an application form and return it to the ALEA home office marked "Attention: ALEA Safety Committee."

Use the FAR's should you question an accident or violation. ANY accident or violation, regardless of nature or circumstances, will disqualify the candidate. Award requirements do not include military flight time.

You may order metal plate and walnut engraved plaques for $50.00 (plus the cost of shipping). Awards will be sent to the candidate's chief pilot or supervisor for presentation.
